INTRODUCTION

The case teaching method has become the way of teaching in B-Schools across the globe, which provides students with real-time experience. The Management Case Competition (MCC) conference is an endeavour to motivate academicians, practitioners, consultants, and research scholars to come up with the best solution to a business situation. The case competition aims to encourage and promote the development of high-quality cases of both national and international relevance. Participants from all over the world are invited to participate and share their experiences.

This year will be the 3rd edition of MCC. It will be held on the 8th of November 2024. Considering the importance of sustainability in all facets of life. This year's theme of management case conference will be "Sustainability". The event will be held in hybrid mode.
