

For Immediate Release

PRESS RELEASE

CIMP Hosts Annual Sports Event “SPARDHA 2025”: A Grand Celebration of Sportsmanship and Competition!!

Patna, February 27, 2025 – Chandragupt Institute of Management Patna (CIMP) organized SPARDHA 2025, its annual inter-college sports event, on February 27, 2025. The two-day sporting extravaganza has drawn an impressive participation of around 500 students from various colleges in the city, including Patna University, Patiliputra University, Vanijya Mahavidyalaya, LN Mishra Institute of Economic Development and Social Change (LNMI), Amity University, Patna science college, St. Xavier college of management. The event was inaugurated in the morning by Prof. Dr. Rana Singh, Director of CIMP, Prof. Sibananda Senapati, Sports co-ordinator CIMP and Mr. Kumod Kumar, Chief Administrative officer of CIMP. The event was inaugurated with a ribbon-cutting ceremony and a friendly Badminton match between faculties, marking an energetic start to the competition.

Diverse Participation and Events

SPARDHA 2025 features a wide array of sports, fostering enthusiasm and competitive spirit among students. The games included are Badminton with a total of 125 participants, Carrom with 50 participants, online game BGMI with 70 participants, Volleyball with 4 teams, Chess with 55 participants, Table Tennis with 40 participants, Tug of War with 14 teams.

The event has also witnessed a diverse representation, with 70.5% male and 29.5% female participants, emphasizing inclusivity in sports with a prize pool of up to ₹1 lakh. SPARDHA 2025 promises intense competition and rewarding experiences for the winners. The event serves as a platform to promote sportsmanship, teamwork, and excellence among students from various academic institutions. Most of the league matches and 1st round matches are played today, the 1st semifinal volleyball match played between RKD college and LNMI Patna, the winner RKD college will meet the winner of 2nd semifinal between CIMP and St. Xavier college tomorrow. The other final matches will also be held tomorrow, followed by the certificate/prize distribution.

