INTRODUCTION

The case teaching method has become the way of teaching in B-Schools across the globe, which provides students with real-time experience. The Management Case Conference (MCC) is an endeavour to motivate academicians, practitioners, consultants, and research scholars to come up with the best solution to a business situation. The case conference aims to encourage and promote the development of high-quality cases of both national and international relevance. Participants from all over the world are invited to participate and share their experiences.

This year will be the 5th edition of MCC. It will be held on the 6th of November 2026. This year's theme of management case conference will be "Bridging Theory and Practice: Real-World Management Challenges". The event will be held in hybrid mode.

TOPICS

We invite case study submissions across all functional and interdisciplinary areas of management, highlighting real-world organizational issues and managerial decision-making.
